The screenshot shows the myGov login interface. At the top left is the Australian Government logo and the myGov logo. A 'need help?' link with a question mark icon is at the top right. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled 'Welcome to myGov' and contains the text: 'The australia.gov.au account has changed to myGov. You can use your australia.gov.au ID to sign in to myGov. Don't have one? Simply create a new myGov account.' Below this are links for 'About myGov', 'Security', and 'Privacy', and a 'Create a myGov account' button. The right column is titled 'All in one place' and contains the text: 'A fast, simple way to access government online services. One login. One password. One destination.' Below this is a graphic of a folder labeled 'myGov' with the Australian Government logo on it. At the bottom of the left column is a 'Sign in' section with a label 'myGov username/australia.gov.au ID', a text input field, a 'Forgotten your myGov username?' link, a 'Password' label, another text input field, a 'Forgotten your password?' link, and a 'Sign In' button with a lock icon.
